

List of candidates for Bay of Quinte by-election now available

TORONTO, September 5, 2024 – Candidate nominations for the Bay of Quinte by-election have closed, and a full list of candidates is now available at elections.on.ca. In total, there are 7 candidates and 6 political parties running in this by-election.

Voter information cards are on their way to registered electors. While these cards are not required for voting, eligible voters are encouraged to confirm, update, or add their information to the Register at vreg.registertovoteon.ca by September 9 so that they will be mailed a voter information card with information on when, where, and how to vote.

Voters can also create an account on the Elections Ontario app, where they can access the full list of candidates and a scannable version of their voter information card.

There are many days and ways to mark your X in this by-election. To vote in person before election day, voters can cast their ballot at their returning office until September 18 or during advance voting at additional voting locations.

More information about the Bay of Quinte by-election, including when and where to vote and examples of accepted ID, is available at elections.on.ca.
